

BMG NZ - Sales & Marketing Tip 10

Surviving

Surviving quieter economic times can be as simple as concentrating on three key business elements - review your collections process and be extra vigilant about collecting debtors, work on and define what makes your business different from your competitors and review and increase your marketing activity.

This tip was brought to you by BMG NZ.